

N. HARRIS COMPUTER CORPORATION AND COPERNIC ENTER INTO AN ARRANGEMENT AGREEMENT

Toronto, Ontario, August 25, 2010 – N. Harris Computer Corporation (“Harris”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Constellation Software Inc. (TSX: CSU), and Copernic Inc. (“Copernic”) (NASDAQ: CNIC) jointly announce that they have entered into a definitive arrangement agreement (the “Arrangement Agreement”) with Comamtech Inc. (“Comamtech”), a newly incorporated corporation, with respect to an arrangement (the “Arrangement”) pursuant to which Copernic will ultimately be acquired and taken private by Harris and current shareholders of Copernic will become shareholders of Comamtech, which shall retain certain assets of Copernic. The transactions outlined in the Arrangement Agreement, subject to certain customary conditions, are expected to close by the end of October, 2010. Please note that all dollar amounts referred to in this press release are U.S. Dollars unless otherwise stated.

The purchase price to be paid by Harris to Comamtech for the shares of Copernic is equal to $7,200,000 payable as to $5,700,000 at closing, with an additional $1,500,000 payable on the 18th month anniversary of the closing. The initial payment at closing will be subject to an initial price adjustment whereby it will be decreased on a dollar for dollar basis by the amount that the cash balances of Copernic at closing are less than $2,500,000. In addition, Harris has agreed to pay an earn-out in the maximum aggregate amount of $400,000, based on certain net sales revenues and software license bench marks. Furthermore, the Arrangement Agreement provides for closing adjustment provisions based on whether the net tangible assets of Copernic are greater than or less than $2,500,000, which threshold will be decreased if the cash balances of Copernic are less than $2,500,000 at closing.

Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, Copernic has agreed to pay Harris a termination fee of $500,000 in certain circumstances if the proposed Arrangement is not completed. Harris, likewise, has agreed to pay Copernic a termination fee of $500,000 in the event of a material breach or non-performance by Harris of its obligations under the Arrangement Agreement.
