Constellation Software Inc. Acquires System Innovators Inc.

Toronto, Canada, April 4, 2008 -- Constellation Software Inc. (“Constellation”) (TSX: CSU) announced today that it has completed, through its wholly-owned subsidiary N. Harris Computer Corporation (“Harris”), the acquisition of System Innovators Inc. System Innovators is a leading provider of online cashiering and collections systems and support for government and utility clients.

"I am pleased to add System Innovators to the Harris family of solutions." stated Jeff Bender, Harris CEO. "We continue to add best in class solutions to our portfolio and this is no exception. We are impressed with the employee group, customer base and solutions and look forward to a long future together." continued Bender. "This acquisition is good for existing and prospective customers as we expand the available market for System Innovators' solutions."

Roger Nelson, the founder and owner of System Innovators, said "I have thoroughly enjoyed the 27 years that I have spent building this business and am grateful for the many friendships with employees and clients that have developed along the way. System Innovators is poised for growth and I am ready for an active retirement so this is the right thing to do to allow the business to flourish. Our clients and employees will both benefit from this acquisition by Harris. I am confident that I am leaving the company in good hands".

"System Innovators' success has been built on our total commitment to our clients for the past 27 years." stated Jim Simak, Executive Vice President responsible for the System Innovators business unit. "Harris' philosophy of "Software for Life" enables us to fulfill on our mission of exceeding our clients' expectations. This opportunity will allow System Innovators to deliver our innovative cashiering products and services to a much larger market. We are very pleased to join the Harris family."

As a result of the purchase, System Innovators and its flagship cashiering solution iNovah are now part of the Harris portfolio of solutions. System Innovators will operate as a business unit of Harris and will continue to sell, develop, enhance, support and service iNovah, RevenueCollector and Cashier for Windows from their current offices in Jacksonville, FL.
