

Southwest Ohio Regional Transit Authority Chooses Comprehensive Solution from Trapeze ITS

Toronto, Ontario, Canada, May 28, 2010 – Constellation Software Inc. (“Constellation”) (TSX: CSU) announced today that Trapeze ITS, a leading provider of solutions for public passenger transportation and an operating company within Constellation’s Trapeze Operating Group, has signed a significant contract with Southwest Ohio Regional Transit Authority (SORTA) of Cincinnati, Ohio.

The solution for SORTA, which operates Metro fixed-route bus service, replaces an existing legacy system at the agency and includes computer-aided dispatch and automatic vehicle location (CAD/AVL) technology integrated with existing fixed route scheduling and operations management software from Trapeze Group. In addition the solution consists of an intelligent dispatch support system, real-time traveler information, private radio voice and data communication, and a fully redundant fixed site network solution.

The Southwest Ohio Regional Transportation Authority operates 337 fixed route buses out of two (2) garage facilities and provides transit service to the greater Cincinnati metropolitan area. SORTA secured federal funding for the Trapeze ITS system through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA).
